3 The amendments proposed are necessary to facilitate despatch of work and may all be accepted. The last amendment proposed is nothing but a repetition of the provision in the Civil Code which allowed Inspecting Officers to draw Establishment Bills on their Headquarters Treasuries. This practice has been objected to by our Accounts Officers in the P.W. Accounts Department and therefore may be extended to the Civil Branch also. Please put up draft.

Subject matter.

Forwarding a list of changes introduced in the civil accounts.

List of changes in the Civil Account Code (reprinted in 1913) reported to Government with reference to para 4 of Government Order No.Fl.436/G.F.106-05-8 dated the 31st July 1911.

Article.			Changes.
1	5	b	Correction made in the 13th list viz:-- a year being substituted for six months' in line 1 of this article has been cancelled. The first portion of this article stands at present as " No claim against Government not preferred within six months of its becoming due can be paid without the sanction of the Accountant - General.
2			In this article, the following has been added at the end:- " Nor does it apply to payment of claims on account of pensions which are governed by special rules in the Civil Service Regulations" (C.S.R. will have to be read M.S.R.)
3	5	c	In line 3 of the article 'one year' has been substituted for '2 years' and the article stands at present as "Claims of officers, whether gazetted or not, to arrears of pay or allowances or to increments which have been allowed to remain in abeyance for a period exceeding one year, cannot be investigated by an Accountant General except under the special orders of the Local Government"
4	"	"	The following new note (Note 3) has been added "Delays in payment are opposed to all rules and are highly inconvenient and objectionable., and when not satisfactorily explained, should be brought to the notice of the head of the Department concerned."
5	27	b	This clause has been revised as follows:-- " Salary and other allowances claimed on behalf of a ~~dis~~ deceased ~~ceased~~ officer may be paid without the production of the the usual legal authority (i) to the extent of Rs.500/- under orders of the Collector or other officer responsible for payment after such enquiry into the rights and title of the claimants as may be deemed sufficient., (2) for the excess over Rs.500/- under the orders of the Local Government on ~~due~~ the execution of an indemnity bond, with such sureties as it may require, if it is satisfied of the right and title of the claimant and considers that undue delay and hardship would be caused by insisting on the production of letters of administration.

In any case of doubt, payment should be made only to the person producing legal authority.

Any person claiming as the heir of a deceased pensioner should be required to produce the pensioner's half of the Pension Payment order, or if no Pension Payment Order has been issued the copy of the order in which sanction to pension was communicated to the pensioner or his heir.

Notes (3) ~~and (4)~~ newly added to this clause;-

6 137 d. A second advance cannot be made to the same officer under this article until the first has been accounted for.

All officers of the Indian Finance Department, who may in special cases be required to undertake the inspection work involving long and expensive tours, may at the discretion of the head of their office, or of the Comptroller and Auditor General, when the touring officer is himself the head of an office, be allowed to draw advances of travelling allowance for the purpose, subject to adjustment on completion of their tours. Such advances are not to be granted as a matter of course but only on occasions when the cost of travelling cannot be promptly recouped and is so heavy as to be a serious tax on an officer's private resources.
